

TRADE FOR PEACE WEEK

30 November – 4 December 2020

HENK-JAN BRINKMAN

Chief of Peacebuilding Strategy and Partnerships, Peacebuilding Support Office, UN
Department of political and Peacebuilding affairs

Henk-Jan Brinkman has been Chief of Peacebuilding Strategy and Partnerships in the Peacebuilding Support Office of the United Nations Department of Political and Peacebuilding Affairs since 2010. Previously, he was chief Economic Analysis in the World Food Programme. From 2001 to 2006 he was a Senior Economic Affairs Officer in the Executive Office of the Secretary General of the United Nations, where he advised Secretary-General Kofi Annan and Deputy Secretary-General Louise Fréchette on economic, social and environmental issues. He started his career in the UN in 1989 in the Department of Economic and Social Affairs. He has written on such topics as the peace and justice in the post-2015 development agenda, socio-economic factors behind violent conflicts, the impact of high food prices on nutritional status, economic adjustment in Africa, multilateral negotiations and human stature as a measure of the standard of living. He is the lead author of WFP's World Hunger Series – Hunger and Markets (Earthscan, 2009) and the author of Explaining Prices in the Global Economy: A Post-Keynesian Model (Edward Elgar, 1999). He holds a B.A. and an M.A. in economics from the University of Groningen and a Ph.D. in economics from the New School for Social Research in New York City.
