

TRADE FOR PEACE WEEK

30 November – 4 December 2020

MAHMUD JOHNSON

Founder, J-Palm, Liberia

Mr. Mahmud Johnson is an entrepreneur and the founder and CEO of J-Palm Liberia. J-Palm Liberia is a company launched in 2013 which creates oil palm-based consumer goods and clean energy solutions for consumers through a no-waste manufacturing process.

Previously, Mr. Johnson worked part-time as Senior Economic Analyst at Aurora Solutions, a strategy consulting company that works at the intersection of business strategy and economic development in Liberia. In addition to his company and consulting work at USAID and Insight Enterprise Consulting, he also worked directly with in-school youth through a project started in 2012 called the iTeach, iLearn Fellowship. Through this programme, Mr. Johnson mentored and tutored talented young Liberians applying to international universities.
