

TRADE FOR PEACE WEEK

30 November – 4 December 2020

WAEI MANSOUR

SENIOR COUNTRY ECONOMIST FOR IRAQ, WORLD BANK

Wael Mansour is a senior economist at the macroeconomics, trade and investment global practice and is currently the country economist for Iraq. Wael specializes in topics linked to macroeconomic and fiscal policies, growth and diversification, and public financial management. He has worked on many resource-dependent countries including in East Asia, the Middle East and West Africa. Wael holds a PhD in economics from the University of Sussex and has published in many journals.
