Vision and Determination

Reform and Opening up serve China's Fundamental and Long-term Interest.

Understanding the Relationship between Opening Up and Reform

Deng Xiaoping: the more we reform and the wider we open up, the stronger our ability to stand risks.

Jiang Zemin: WTO membership has pros and cons, opportunities will triumph over challenges if we do our homework well.

Hu Jintao: only by adhering to reform and opening up, can we make progress and address the thorny problems occurring in the process of our development.

Xi Jinping: the more we develop, the more open we are. China's door of opening up will never to be closed. Reform and opening up have no end, and they will always be on their way.
