 - (b) without notice of any fraud on the part of the owner.

WHEN TRADEMARK BECOMES ACCEPTED AS SIGN DESCRIBING ARTICLE

- 14. (1) This section applies if a registered trademark is, or contains, a sign that, after the date of registration of the trademark, becomes generally accepted within the relevant trade as the sign that describes or is the name of an article, substance or service.
- (2) If the trademark consists of the sign, the registered owner:
 - (a) does not have any exclusive rights to use, or authorise other persons to use, the trademark for:

- (b) a region or locality in the country where the relevant goods originated that is not the region or locality where the relevant goods originated.

(2) An opposition on a ground referred to in subsection (1) fails if the applicant establishes that:

- (a) the relevant goods originated in the country, region or locality identified by the geographical indication; or
- (b) the sign has ceased to be used as a geographical indication for the designated goods in the country where the designated goods originated; or
- (c) the applicant, or the applicant’s predecessor in title, used the sign in good faith for the relevant goods, or applied in good faith for the registration of the trademark for the relevant goods, before:
 - (i) the commencement day; or
 - (ii) the day the sign was recognised as a geographical indication for the designated goods in their country of origin;

whichever is the later; or

- (d) if the registration of the trademark is being sought for wine or spirits (“relevant wine or spirits”)—the sign is identical with the name that on the commencement day was, in the country where the relevant wine or spirits originated, the customary name of a variety of grapes used in the production of the relevant wine or spirits.

- (3) An opposition on a ground referred to in subsection (1) also fails if the applicant establishes that:
 - (a) although the sign is a geographical indication for the designated goods, it is also a geographical indication for the relevant goods; and
 - (b) the applicant has not used, and does not intend to use, the trademark in relation to the relevant goods in a way that is likely to deceive or confuse members of the public as to the origin of the relevant goods.

APPLICATION DEFECTIVE

- 37. The registration of a trademark may be opposed on the ground that the Registrar accepted the application for registration on the basis of evidence or representations that were false in material particulars.

PART 5—AMENDMENT OF APPLICATION FOR REGISTRATION AND OTHER DOCUMENTS

AMENDMENT OF APPLICATION FOR REGISTRATION

38. (1) The Registrar may, at the written request of the applicant, amend an application for the registration of a trademark in accordance with section 39 or 40.

(2) If:

(a) an application for the registration of a trademark may be amended under section 40; and

(b) the applicant has not asked in writing that the application be amended;

the Registrar may, on his or her own initiative, amend the application as mentioned in section 40 to remove any ground on which the application could be rejected.

AMENDMENT BEFORE PARTICULARS OF APPLICATION ARE PUBLISHED

39. If:

(a) the particulars of an application have not yet been published under section 18; and

(b) a request for amendment is made;

an amendment may be made to correct a clerical error or an obvious mistake.

AMENDMENT AFTER PARTICULARS OF APPLICATION HAVE BEEN PUBLISHED

40. (1) If the particulars of the application have been published under section 18, the application may only be amended as provided in this section.

- (2) An amendment may be made to the representation of the trademark if the amendment does not substantially affect the identity of the trademark as at the time when the particulars of the application were published.
- (3) An amendment may be made to change the type of registration sought in the application (for example, an application for the registration of a trademark may be amended to an application for registration as a collective trademark).

AMENDMENT OF OTHER DOCUMENTS

- 41 The Registrar may, at the written request of the person who has filed an application (other than an application for the registration of a trademark), a notice or other document for the purposes of this Act or at the written request of the person's agent, amend the application, notice or document:
- (a) to correct a clerical error or an obvious mistake; or
 - (b) if the Registrar is of the opinion that it is fair and reasonable in all the circumstances of the case to do so.

PART 6—REGISTRATION OF TRADEMARKS

42. (1) The Registrar must register a trademark that has been accepted for registration:

COLOURS IN REGISTERED TRADEMARKS

- 44. (1) A trademark may be registered with or without conditions about colour.
- (2) The conditions may be about the whole, or a part, of the trademark.

 - (e) if applications to register the trademark were made in more than one Convention country—from (and including) the day on which the earliest of those applications was made.
- (3) Unless it is earlier cancelled, or the trademark is earlier removed from the Register, the registration of the trademark expires 10 years after the filing date of the application for its registration.

CEASING OF REGISTRATION

47 The registration of a trademark ceases if:

- (a) the trademark is removed from the Register under section 50 or Part 8; or
- (b) the registration of the trademark is cancelled.

DIVISION 2—RENEWAL OF REGISTRATION

REQUEST FOR RENEWAL

48. (1) Any person may, within 3 months before the registration of a trademark expires, ask the Registrar to renew the registration.
- (2) The request must be in the approved form and be filed with the Registrar.

RENEWAL BEFORE REGISTRATION EXPIRES

- (2) The Registrar must give notice of the renewal to the registered owner of the trademark.

FAILURE TO RENEW

50. If the registration of a trademark is not renewed, then:

RENEWAL WITHIN 3 MONTHS AFTER REGISTRATION EXPIRES

- (2) The request must be in the approved form and be filed with the Registrar.

PART 7—AMENDMENT AND CANCELLATION OF REGISTRATION

CORRECTION OF REGISTER

52. (1) The Registrar may, on his or her own initiative, correct any error or omission made in entering in the Register any particular in respect of the registration of a trademark.
- (2) The Court may, on the application of an aggrieved person, order that the Register be rectified by:
- (a) entering in the Register particulars that were wrongly omitted from it; or
 - (b) correcting an error in an entry in the Register.
- (3) When the Registrar amends any information entered in the Register about a trademark, the Registrar may also amend the certificate of registration if it is necessary to ensure it reflects the information in the Register.

CANCELLATION OF REGISTRATION BY REGISTRAR

53. (1) The Registrar must cancel the registration of a trademark if the registered owner asks in writing that the registration be cancelled.
- (2) Before cancelling the registration of the trademark, the Registrar must notify:
- (a) any person recorded under Part 10 as claiming a right or interest in the trademark; and
 - (b) if:
 - (i) an application has been made to the Registrar for the assignment or transmission of the trademark to a person to be recorded in the Register (see section 68); and
 - (ii) the assignment has not yet been recorded;
- the person to whom the trademark has been assigned or transmitted.

54. The Court may, on the application of an aggrieved person, order that the Register be rectified by:

- (a) cancelling the registration of a trademark; or
- (b) removing or amending any entry in the Register relating to the trademark;

on the ground that a condition or limitation entered in the Register in relation to the trademark has been contravened.

AMENDMENT OR CANCELLATION—LOSS OF EXCLUSIVE RIGHTS TO USE TRADEMARK

55. (1) If section 14 applies to a registered trademark, the Court may, on the application of an aggrieved person, but subject to subsection (2) and section 57, order that the Register be rectified by:

- (a) cancelling the registration of the trademark; or
- (b) removing or amending any entry in the Register relating to the trademark;

having regard to the effect of section 14 on the right of the registered owner of the trademark to use the trademark, or any sign that is part of the trademark, in relation to particular goods or services.

(2) If section 14 applies to the trademark because the trademark contains a sign that has become generally accepted within the relevant trade as the sign that describes or is the name of an article, substance or service, the Court may decide not to make an order under subsection (1) and allow the trademark to remain on the Register for:

- (a) the article or substance or goods of the same description; or
- (b) the service or services of the same description;

subject to any condition or limitation that the Court may impose.

AMENDMENT OR CANCELLATION—OTHER GROUNDS

 - (c) entering any condition or limitation affecting the registration of a trademark that ought to be entered.
- (2) An application may be made on any of the following grounds, and on no other grounds:
- (a) any of the grounds on which the registration of the trademark could have been opposed under Division 2 of Part 4; or
 - (b) that an amendment of the application for the registration of the trademark was obtained as a result of fraud or misrepresentation; or
 - (c) because of the circumstances applying at the time when the application for rectification is filed, the use of the trademark is likely to deceive or cause confusion for a reason other than one for which:
 - (i) the application for the registration of the trademark could have been rejected under section 28 or 29; or
 - (ii) the registration of the trademark could have been opposed under section 35; or
 - (d) that the following circumstances apply:
 - (i) the Registrar accepted the application for the registration of the trademark because he or she was satisfied, having regard to the extent to which the trademark was inherently adapted to distinguish the goods or services of the applicant for registration from the goods or services of any other person and the intended use of the trademark, that the trademark would distinguish those goods or services as being those of the applicant (see subsection 26(3)); and

- (ii) the application for rectification is made at least 10 years after the filing date; and
- (iii) in the intervening period, the trademark has not been used to an extent sufficient for it to distinguish, in fact, the goods or services of the registered owner from the goods or services of any other person; or
- (e) if the application is in respect of an entry in the Register—the entry was made, or has been previously amended, as a result of fraud or misrepresentation.

NO RECTIFICATION IN CERTAIN CASES IF REGISTERED OWNER NOT AT FAULT

57. (1) The Court may decide not to grant an application for rectification made:
- (a) under section 63; or
 - (b) on the ground that the trademark is liable to deceive or confuse (a ground on which its registration could have been opposed, see paragraph 64(2)(a)); or
 - (c) on the ground referred to in paragraph 64(2)(c);
- if the registered owner of the trademark satisfies the Court that the ground relied on by the applicant has not arisen through any act or fault of the registered owner.
- (2) In making a decision under subsection (1), the Court may take into account any matter that the Court considers relevant.

DUTIES AND POWERS OF REGISTRAR

58. (1) A person applying to the Court under this Part must give notice of the application to the Registrar.

APPLICATION FOR REMOVAL FOR NON-USE

59. (1) A person aggrieved by the fact that a trademark is or may be registered may, subject to subsection (4), make an application (“non-use application”) to the Registrar for the trademark to be removed from the Register.
- (2) The non-use application:
- (a) must be made by filing the approved form; and
 - (b) may be made about any or all of the goods and/or services for which the trademark is registered.
- (3) The Registrar must:
- (a) give notice of the application to the registered owner of the trademark; and
 - (b) publish a notice of the application in the Gazette.
- (4) The non-use application may be made:
- (a) if it is on the ground referred to in paragraph (5)(a)—at any time after the filing date for the application for the registration of the trade mark; and
 - (b) if it is on the ground referred to in paragraph (5)(b)—at any time after a period of 5 years has passed from the filing date in respect of the application for the registration of the trade mark.
- (5) A non-use application may be made on either or both of the following grounds, and on no other grounds:
- (a) that, on the day on which the application for the registration of the trade mark was filed, the applicant for registration had no intention in good faith:
 - (i) to use the trade mark in Vanuatu; or

- (ii) to authorise the use of the trade mark in Vanuatu; or
- (iii) to assign the trade mark to a body corporate for use by the body corporate in Vanuatu;

for the goods and/or services to which the non-use application relates and that the registered owner:

- (iv) has not used the trade mark in Vanuatu; or
- (v) has not used the trade mark in good faith in Vanuatu;

for those goods and/or services at any time before the period of one month ending on the day on which the non-use application is filed;

- (b) that the trade mark has remained registered for a continuous period of 3 years ending one month before the day on which the non-use application is filed, and, at no time during that period, the person who was then the registered owner used the trade mark in Vanuatu for the goods and/or services to which the application relates.
- (6) A non-use application may not be made if an action about the trademark is pending in the Court, but the person aggrieved may apply to the Court for an order directing the Registrar to remove the trademark from the Register.
 - (7) If the right or interest on which the person relied to make the application becomes vested in another person, the other person may, on giving notice of the relevant facts to the Registrar or the Court (as the case requires), be substituted for the first-mentioned person as the applicant.

REFERRAL TO COURT

60. If:

- (a) an application to remove a trademark for non-use has been made to the Registrar; and
- (b) the Registrar is of the opinion that the matter should be decided by the Court;

the Registrar may refer the matter to the Court and the Court may hear and determine the matter as if the application had been made to it.

NOTICE OF OPPOSITION

61. Any person may oppose an application under section 59 by filing a notice of opposition in the approved form with the Registrar or the Court, as the case requires.

REMOVAL OF TRADEMARK IF APPLICATION UNOPPOSED

62. (1) If there is no opposition to an application to the Registrar, the Registrar must remove the trademark from the Register for the goods and/or services specified in the application.
- (2) If there is no opposition to an application to the Court, the Court must order the Registrar to remove the trademark from the Register for the goods and/or services specified in the application. The Court must cause a copy of the order to be served on the Registrar and the Registrar must comply with the order.

PROCEEDINGS BEFORE REGISTRAR

62. If an application to the Registrar is opposed, the Registrar must:
- (a) give both parties an opportunity to be heard; and
 - (b) make a decision whether to remove the trademark.

DECISION ON OPPOSED APPLICATION

64. (1) Subject to subsection (3), if:
- (a) the application to the Registrar has not been withdrawn or dismissed; and
 - (b) the Registrar is satisfied that the grounds on which the application was made have been established;
- the Registrar may decide to remove the trademark from the Register for any or all of the relevant goods and/or services.

- (2) Subject to subsection (3), if at the end of the proceedings the Court is satisfied that the grounds on which the application was made have been established, the Court may order the Registrar to remove the trademark from the Register for any or all of the relevant goods and/or services.
- (3) If satisfied that it is reasonable to do so, the Registrar or the Court may decide that the trademark should not be removed from the Register even if the grounds on which the application was made have been established.
- (4) The Court must cause a copy of the order to be served on the Registrar and the Registrar must comply with the order.

CERTIFICATE—USE OF TRADEMARK

65. (1) If in proceedings about an opposed application the Registrar or the Court has found that:
- (a) a trademark has been used in good faith during a particular period; or
 - (b) a trademark has not been used during a particular period solely because of circumstances that were an obstacle to its use;
- the Registrar or the Court must, if so requested by the registered owner of the trademark, give the registered owner a certificate of those findings.
- (2) In any subsequent proceedings in which non-use of the trademark is alleged the certificate is evidence of the facts stated in it.

PART 9—ASSIGNMENT AND TRANSMISSION OF TRADEMARKS

ASSIGNMENT AND TRANSMISSION OF TRADEMARK

66. (1) A registered trademark, or a trademark whose registration is being sought, may be assigned or transmitted in accordance with this section.

- (3) The assignment or transmission may be with or without the goodwill of the business concerned in the relevant goods and/or services.

RECORDING ASSIGNMENT OF TRADEMARK WHOSE REGISTRATION IS SOUGHT

RECORDING ASSIGNMENT OF REGISTERED TRADEMARK IN REGISTER

68. (1) If a registered trademark is assigned or transmitted:

 - (b) the registration of the beneficiary as the owner of the trademark.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION TO BE GIVEN TO PERSON RECORDED AS CLAIMING INTEREST IN TRADEMARK

69. If an application for the assignment or transmission of a trademark complies with this Act, the Registrar must notify in writing any person recorded under Part 10 as claiming an interest in, or a right in respect of, the trademark.

- the Registrar must enter those particulars in the Register.

RECORD NOT PROOF OF EXISTENCE OF RIGHT .

71. The fact that a record has been made in the Register under this Part that a person claims an interest in, or a right to, a registered trademark is not proof or evidence that the person has that right or interest.

RECORDING CLAIMS TO INTEREST - UNREGISTERED TRADEMARKS

72. (1) If:
- (a) a person has applied for the registration of a trademark; and
 - (b) another person claims to have an interest in, or a right to, the trademark;

- (2) The application must be in an approved form and must be filed with the Registrar.
- (3) If the application has been made in accordance with this section, the Registrar must record, in the papers dealing with the application for registration, the particulars of the claim set out in the application.

PART 11—INFRINGEMENT OF TRADEMARKS

WHEN IS A REGISTERED TRADEMARK INFRINGED?

73. (1) A person infringes a registered trademark if the person uses as a trademark a sign that is substantially identical with, or deceptively similar to, the trademark for goods or services for which the trademark is registered.
- (2) A person infringes a registered trademark if the person uses as a trademark a sign that is substantially identical with, or deceptively similar to, the trademark for:
- (a) goods of the same description as that of the goods (“registered goods”) for which the trademark is registered; or
 - (b) services that are closely related to registered goods; or
 - (c) services of the same description as that of the services (“registered services”) for which the trademark is registered; or
 - (d) goods that are closely related to registered services.

However, the person is not taken to have infringed the trademark if the person establishes that using the sign as the person did is not likely to deceive or cause confusion.

- (3) A person infringes a registered trademark if:
- (a) the trademark is well known in Vanuatu; and
 - (b) the person uses as a trademark a sign that is substantially identical with, or deceptively similar to, the trademark for:
 - (i) goods (“unrelated goods”) that are not of the same description as that of the goods for which the trademark is registered (“registered goods”) or are not closely related to services for which the trademark is registered (“registered services”); or
 - (ii) services (“unrelated services”) that are not of the same description as that of the registered services or are not closely related to registered goods; and

- (c) because the trademark is well known, the sign would be likely to be taken as showing a connection between the unrelated goods or services and the registered owner of the trademark; and
 - (d) for that reason, the interests of the registered owner are likely to be adversely affected.
- (4) In deciding whether a trademark is well known in Vanuatu, a Court must take account of the extent to which the trademark is known within the relevant sector of the public, whether as a result of the promotion of the trademark or for any other reason.

INFRINGEMENT OF TRADEMARK BY BREACH OF RESTRICTIONS

74. (1) This section applies to a registered trademark if the registered owner, or an authorised user of the trademark having power to do so, has caused a notice (“notice of prohibition”) prohibiting any act that is a prohibited act in relation to the goods (“registered goods”) for which the trademark is registered to be displayed:
- (a) on the registered goods; or
 - (b) on their package; or
 - (c) on the container in which they are offered to the public.
- (2) Each of the following is a prohibited act:
- (a) applying the trademark to registered goods, or using the trademark in physical relation to them, after the state, condition, get-up or packaging in which they were originally offered to the public has been altered;
 - (b) altering, or partially removing or obliterating, any representation of the trademark applied to registered goods or used in physical relation to them;
 - (c) if the trademark has been applied to registered goods, or used in physical relation to them, together with other matter indicating that the registered owner or authorised user has dealt with the goods—removing or obliterating, totally or in part, any representation of the trademark without totally removing or obliterating the other matter;

- (d) applying another trademark to registered goods or using another trademark in physical relation to them;
 - (e) if the trademark has been applied to registered goods or used in physical relation to them—using on the goods, or on the packaging or container of the goods, any matter that is likely to injure the reputation of the trademark.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), a person infringes a trademark to which this section applies if the person:
 - (a) is the owner of registered goods; and
 - (b) in the course of trade, or with a view to a dealing with the goods in the course of trade:
 - (i) does an act that is prohibited under the notice of prohibition; or
 - (ii) authorises that act to be done.
- (4) The trademark is not infringed if the owner of the goods:
 - (a) acquired them in good faith and without being aware of the notice of prohibition; or
 - (b) became the owner of the goods because of a title derived from a person who had so acquired them.

WHEN IS A TRADEMARK NOT INFRINGED?

75. In spite of section 73, a person does not infringe a registered trademark when:
- (a) the person uses in good faith:
 - (i) the person's name or the name of the person's place of business; or
 - (ii) the name of a predecessor in business of the person or the name of the predecessor's place of business; or
 - (b) the person uses a sign in good faith to show:

- (i) the kind, quality, quantity, intended purpose, value, geographical origin, or some other characteristic, of goods or services; or
- (ii) the time of production of goods or provision of services; or
- (c) the person uses the trademark in good faith to show the intended purpose of goods (in particular as accessories or spare parts) or services; or
- (d) the person uses the trademark for the purposes of comparative advertising; or
- (e) the person exercises a right to use a trademark given to the person under this Act; or
- (f) the Court is of the opinion that the person would obtain registration of the trademark in his or her name if the person were to apply for it; or
- (g) the person, in using a sign referred to in subsection 73(1), (2) or (3) in a manner referred to in that subsection, does not (because of a condition or limitation subject to which the trademark is registered) infringe the exclusive right of the registered owner to use the trademark.

GOODS . TO WHICH REGISTERED TRADEMARK HAS BEEN APPLIED BY, OR WITH CONSENT OF, REGISTERED OWNER

76. (1) In spite of section 73, a person who uses a registered trademark for goods that are similar to goods for which the trademark is registered does not infringe the trademark if the trademark has been applied to, or in relation to, the goods by, or with the consent of, the registered owner of the trademark.
- (2) In spite of section 73, a person who uses a registered trademark for services that are similar to services for which the trademark is registered does not infringe the trademark if the trademark has been applied in relation to the services by, or with the consent of, the registered owner of the trademark.

PRIOR USE OF IDENTICAL TRADEMARK

77. A person does not infringe a registered trademark by using an unregistered trademark that is substantially identical with, or deceptively similar to, the registered trademark for:

- (a) goods similar to goods (“registered goods”) for which the trademark is registered; or
- (b) services closely related to registered goods; or
- (c) services similar to services (“registered services”) for which the trademark is registered; or
- (d) goods closely related to registered services;

if the person, or the person and the person’s predecessor in title, have continuously used in the course of trade the unregistered trademark for those goods or services from a time before:

- (d) the date of registration of the registered trademark; or
- (e) the registered owner of the registered trademark, or a predecessor in title, first used the trademark;

whichever is earlier.

ACTION FOR INFRINGEMENT

78. (1) An action for an infringement of a registered trademark may be brought in the Court.
- (2) The relief that the Court may grant in an action for an infringement of a registered trademark includes:
- (a) an injunction, which may be granted subject to any condition that the Court thinks fit; and
 - (b) at the option of the plaintiff but subject to section 79, damages or an account of profits.

SPECIAL CASE—PLAINTIFF NOT ENTITLED TO DAMAGES

79. If:

- (a) in an action for the infringement of a trademark registered for particular goods or services, the Court finds that the defendant has infringed the trademark; and
- (b) the defendant has applied to the Court under section 59 for an order directing the Registrar to remove the trademark from the Register for those goods or services; and
- (c) the Court finds that, because the trademark has not during a particular period (“critical period”) been used in good faith by its registered owner for those goods or services, there are grounds (under subsection 59(4)) for so removing the trademark from the Register;

the Court may not grant relief to the plaintiff by way of damages or an account of profits for any infringement of the trademark that happened during the critical period.

PART 12—OFFENCES

FALSIFYING A REGISTERED TRADEMARK

80. (1) A person must not falsify or unlawfully remove a trademark that:

PART 13—COLLECTIVE TRADEMARKS

WHAT IS A COLLECTIVE TRADEMARK?

85. A “collective trademark” is a sign used, or intended to be used, for goods or services dealt with or provided in the course of trade by members of an association, to distinguish those goods or services from goods or services so dealt with or provided by people who are not members of the association.

ACT APPLIES TO COLLECTIVE TRADEMARKS

86. (1) Subject to this Part, the provisions of this Act relating to trademarks (other than Part 9—Assignment and Transmission of Trademarks) apply to collective trademarks as if:
- (a) a reference to a trademark included a reference to a collective trademark; and
 - (b) a reference to a person doing something for the registration of a trademark included a reference to an association doing that thing for the registration of the collective trademark; and
 - (c) a reference to a trademark registered by a person included a reference to a collective trademark registered by an association.
- (2) For the purposes of this Act:
- (a) the use of a collective trademark by a member of the association that is the applicant for the registration of the collective trademark is taken to be a use of the collective trademark by the applicant; and
 - (b) the use of a registered collective trademark by a member of the association that is the registered owner of the collective trademark is taken to be a use of the collective trademark by the registered owner.
- (3) Section 26 (trademark not distinguishing applicant’s goods or services) applies to a collective trademark as if a reference to the applicant were a reference to the members of the association that applied for registration of the collective trademark.

APPLICATION FOR REGISTRATION

87. An application for the registration of a collective trademark must be made by the association to which the mark belongs.

LIMITATION ON RIGHTS GIVEN BY REGISTERED COLLECTIVE TRADEMARK

88. (1) A member of an association in whose name a collective trademark is registered does not have the right to prevent another member of the association from using the collective trademark in accordance with the rules of the association (if any).
- (2) A collective trademark may not be assigned or transmitted.

INFRINGEMENT OF COLLECTIVE TRADEMARK

89. In an action by an association in whose name a collective trademark is registered seeking relief for infringement of the collective trademark, the association may take into account, in claiming damages, any damage or loss of profits sustained or incurred by the members of the association as a result of the infringement.

PART 15 - INDIGENOUS KNOWLEDGE

REGISTRATION OF TRADEMARK INVOLVING INDIGENOUS CULTURE

94. (1) If it appears to the Registrar that an application is for registration of a trademark that involves an expression of indigenous culture, the Registrar must refer the application to the National Cultural Council.

(2) The Registrar must not register a trademark that involves an expression of indigenous culture unless:

- (a) the custom owners have given their prior informed consent to the registration; and
- (b) the applicant and the custom owners have entered into an agreement on the payment by the applicant to the custom owners of an equitable share of the benefits derived from the use of the trademark.

(3) However, the Registrar may register the trademark without the prior informed consent of the custom owners if the Registrar is, after consultation with the National Cultural Council, satisfied that:

- (a) the custom owners cannot be identified; or
- (b) there is a dispute about ownership of the expression of indigenous culture concerned.

In such a case, the Registrar must not register the trademark unless the applicant and the National Cultural Council have entered into an agreement on the payment by the applicant to the National Cultural Council of an equitable share of the benefits derived from the use of the trademark.

(4) Before entering into an agreement under subsection (3), the National Cultural Council must consult the National Council of Chiefs.

(5) If an agreement mentioned in subsection (2) or (3) has not been entered into within 12 months after the trademark application has been lodged:

- (a) the Registrar may register the trademark; and
- (b) the registered owner may use the trademark; and
- (c) the Registrar is to determine the amount payable to the custom owners or the National Cultural Council by the registered owner of the trademark, being payment of an equitable share of the benefits derived from the use of the trademark.

- (6) Any payments made to the National Cultural Council under an agreement mentioned in subsection (3) or a determination under paragraph (5)(c) must be used for the purposes of indigenous cultural development.
- (7) An appeal lies to the Court from a decision of the Registrar determining an amount under paragraph (5)(c).
- (8) An agreement mentioned in subsection (2) or (3) may contain other conditions, including how and when the trademark is to be used.
