Session Title

From Baku to Busan: Linking multilateral action on climate and plastic pollution

Session Description

This session will explore the critical intersection of climate change and plastic pollution, examining how multilateral actions are advancing solutions across regions—from Baku to Busan. As both crises demand coordinated global responses, we'll delve into the frameworks and strategies emerging from diverse regions and organizations, illustrating how cross-border collaboration can amplify impacts in addressing plastic waste and reducing emissions. By linking climate and plastic pollution action, we underscore the need for comprehensive, systemic change that enhances resilience, protects ecosystems, and fosters sustainable development. This session will equip participants with practical insights and strategies to drive collaborative efforts, reinforcing the role of multilateral cooperation in building a cleaner, climate-resilient future.
