How can the IBA help you in future?

Alison Hook, IBA

How can the IBA help you in future?

The Trade in Legal Services Committee can:

- Offer access to a wide range of information products
- Meet and discuss further with individual delegations
- Provide support to your local bar association on the issues raised by trade in legal services commitments (there are 193 member Bar Associations of the IBA)
- Engage with the wider legal profession in your country in partnership with your local bar (e.g. through our globalisation conference series)
