

Mr. Xavier Seuba

Xavier Seuba, ES, Director, Patent Academy and EQE, EPO Munich. Prior to joining the EPO, he was Vice-Dean of the Faculty of Law and Political Science of Universitat Oberta de Catalunya, and Academic Co-ordinator and Scientific Responsible at the Center for International Intellectual Property Studies (CEIPI), where he was the Director of the Diploma on Patent Litigation in Europe, among other programmes in the areas of technology transfer and pharmaceutical patents. He has also worked as a consultant for several international organisations (e.g. WIPO, WHO, UNCTAD, UNHCHR, IDB, EUIPO) and governments in the context of international trade negotiations and in normative and policy reform impacting intellectual property, pharmaceutical regulation and innovation policies. In the field of dispute resolution, he has acted as arbiter in patent-related disputes. With more than one hundred scientific publications - including nine books, in the areas of IP enforcement, trade and IP, and standardisation - he belongs to several academic associations.
