

Ms. Xiaoping Wu

Mrs. Xiaoping Wu is a Counsellor in the Intellectual Property, Government Procurement and Competition Division of the World Trade Organization (WTO), and has held this position from 2006.

She undertakes work in the area of the WTO Agreement on Trade-Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights (TRIPS Agreement) with a focus on patent policy and legal issues in the sectors of biotechnology, information and communication technology (ICT), and emerging technologies. She is also responsible for review of WTO Members' national IP legislation and transfer of technology to least developed countries (LDCs). She participates as a speaker in numerous WTO technical assistance and capacity building activities on IP and the TRIPS Agreement.

Mrs. Wu joined the WTO Secretariat as a Legal Affairs Officer in 2002. Prior to joining the WTO Secretariat, she had served as an Assistant Judge in the Shanghai Intermediate Court, and also worked as an attorney-at-law in a law firm in Shanghai, China.

Mrs. Wu obtained a LL.B. from the East China Institute of Politics and Law, a Master degree in civil law from Peking University Law School, and a LL.M. degree in international IP law from George Washington University Law School.