

Antonella Salgueiro

Antonella Salgueiro is a lawyer and former Young Professional (2018) at the Intellectual Property, Government Procurement and Competition Division of the World Trade Organization. Currently, she serves as Secretary-General for the ICC National Chapter in Paraguay and as legal consultant for the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development, in particular on GPA accession issues, including supporting negotiations and assessing legal compliance of procurement regulations with the Agreement. As an attorney, her experience includes dealing with issues related to both Competition and IP matters. Antonella has extensively researched on competition issues, including its interface with public procurement, SOEs and intellectual property. Before joining the WTO, Mrs. Salgueiro received, top of the class, a LL.M. degree in Business, Competition, and Regulatory Law from the Freie Universität Berlin and counts as well with more than 10 years of experience related to IP.